

Local Real Estate Manager Honored by Local IREM® Chapter

As CERTIFIED PROPERTY MANAGER® of the Year

San Antonio, TX
February 2008

Gene Bartosh, CPM®, of Travis Commercial Real Estate Services, Ltd., has been honored by Chapter 61 of the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM®) as the chapter's CERTIFIED PROPERTY MANAGER® (CPM®) of the year. The CPM® designation is awarded to real estate managers who have met the Institute's rigorous requirements in the areas of professional education, examination and experience. CPM® Members must also abide by a rigorous Code of Professional Ethics that is strictly enforced by the Institute. Mr. Bartosh received the award in recognition of his outstanding contribution to the real estate management profession and the local community.

Mr. Bartosh was presented with his award by Cherry Smith, CPM®, president of Chapter 61 during the chapter's monthly luncheon on February 14, 2008 in San Antonio. He has been a member of IREM since 1989 and served as an Officer from 2001-2003, Chapter President in 2004 as well as the Nominating and Leadership Development Committee. He has also chaired The Friends of IREM Committee and was instrumental in achieving a 100% level of sales and collections.

Mr. Bartosh has been in property management for 20 years, the past ten of those as a partner and the Senior Property Manager with Travis Commercial Real Estate Services, Ltd. Travis Commercial Real Estate Services is a full service commercial real estate company that oversees a leasing and management portfolio of over 2.5 million square feet of office, service and retail space.